

P.J. Emerick CPESC, CPSWQ, CPMSM

Associate Environmental Analyst
NYS Department of Agriculture and Markets

P.J. Emerick has achieved an Associate's degree from Finger Lakes Community College in Natural Resource Conservation and was also awarded a Certificate in Outdoor Recreation. In addition, Mr. Emerick holds a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Studies from SUNY Cobleskill.

Mr. Emerick has over 24 years of experience working in the Natural Resources Conservation and Soil & Water Conservation District field. His work includes stormwater site inspection and education, water quality and soil erosion control technical and senior managerial experience.

Mr. Emerick has also served in several positions with the New York State Conservation District Employees Association as Division II Representative, Vice President and President. Currently, Mr. Emerick is the Central New York Associate Environmental Analyst for the NYS Department of Agriculture and Market - Division of Land & Water Resources.